

Our Ref: FOI2017-039

Date: April 2017

Subject: Discontinued investigations

This request asked whether the SFO has discontinued any investigations on the grounds of double jeopardy.

A search of the information that is available since April 2012 has identified one investigation closed without charge, where double jeopardy was a factor (amongst other factors) in the closure of the investigation.